

An abstract geometric composition featuring several rectangular blocks of different sizes and orientations. The blocks are primarily black and white, with some areas showing a textured, aged, or distressed appearance. The blocks are arranged in a way that creates a sense of depth and movement, with some blocks appearing to overlap others. The overall effect is minimalist and modern.

Barbara,

I don't let anyone read this ~~because only you would understand~~

Remember the first day we met I was picking peaches with my old man and you came around the corner with Pierre I almost fell off the ladder I was laughing to myself so hard. I never did tell you that did I.

Remember the good times up the field playing baseball. and Buddy oh oh hope you have fun.

We'll will say nothing else because I ran out of things to say bye good luck see you this summer

Mary Brannan

God divided the light from the darkness and called the light Day and the darkness Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.

In April the Junior Class presented two "absurd" plays under the title "Experiment in Theatre." Albee's The Sandbox was directed by Miss Barbara Beamer, and Ionesco's The Lesson, directed by Miss Barbara Carrellas.

The two plays were done in black and white and used a semi-arena type of staging.

Queen Cheryl Lee was crowned amid a magnificent setting, and was attended by Libby Carney, Pat Derby, Kathy Brown, and Berni Thibeault. It was truly "A Time For Us."

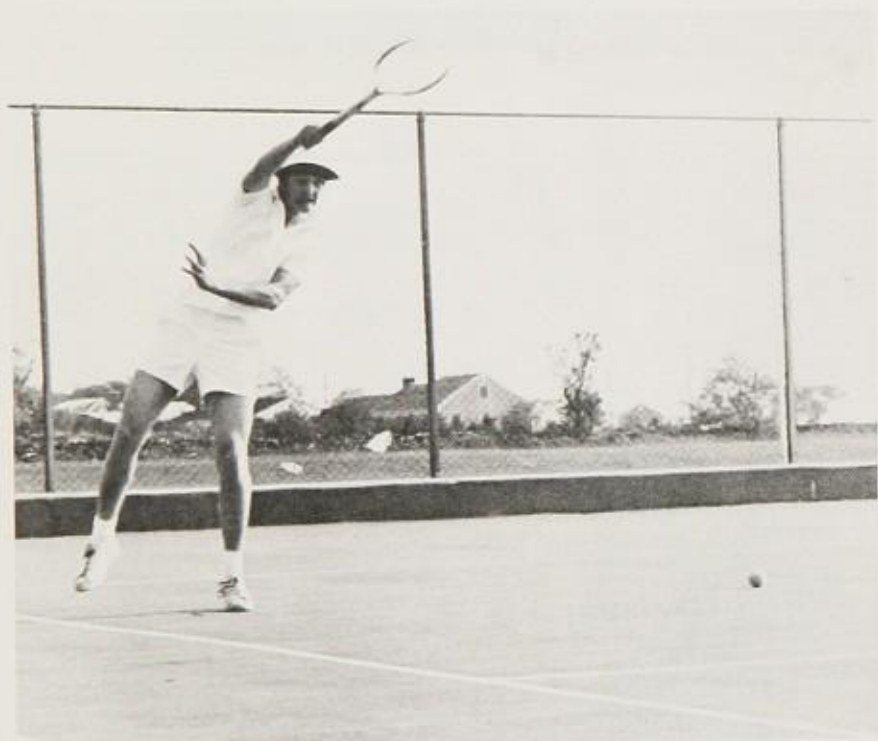

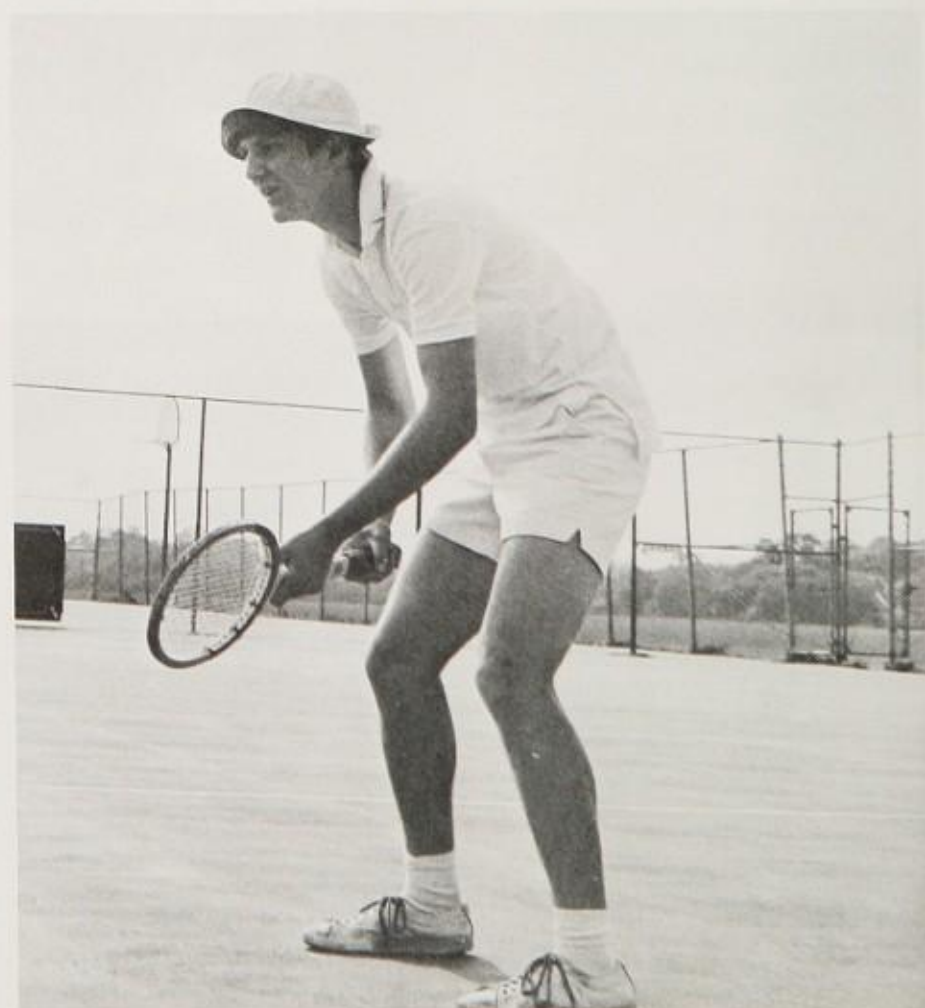

Nostalgia ran rampant in May when the Music Department presented Anything Goes under the direction of Mr. Fred Siravky and Mrs. Marilyn Rockafellow. The 1930's revue featured in principal roles: Gay Huntley, Don Basset, Joe Marques, Ron Buck, and Jani Matley.

In December, the Senior Class presented George Bernard Shaw's Pygmalion, directed by Miss Barbara Beamer. The lead roles of Eliza Dolittle and Henry Higgins were very aptly portrayed by Kathy Smith and Bill Arnold. Barbara Blair, Richard Lawton, and Morgan McCurdy were among the supporting cast. A most enjoyable evening was spent by all who attended.

Senior Class

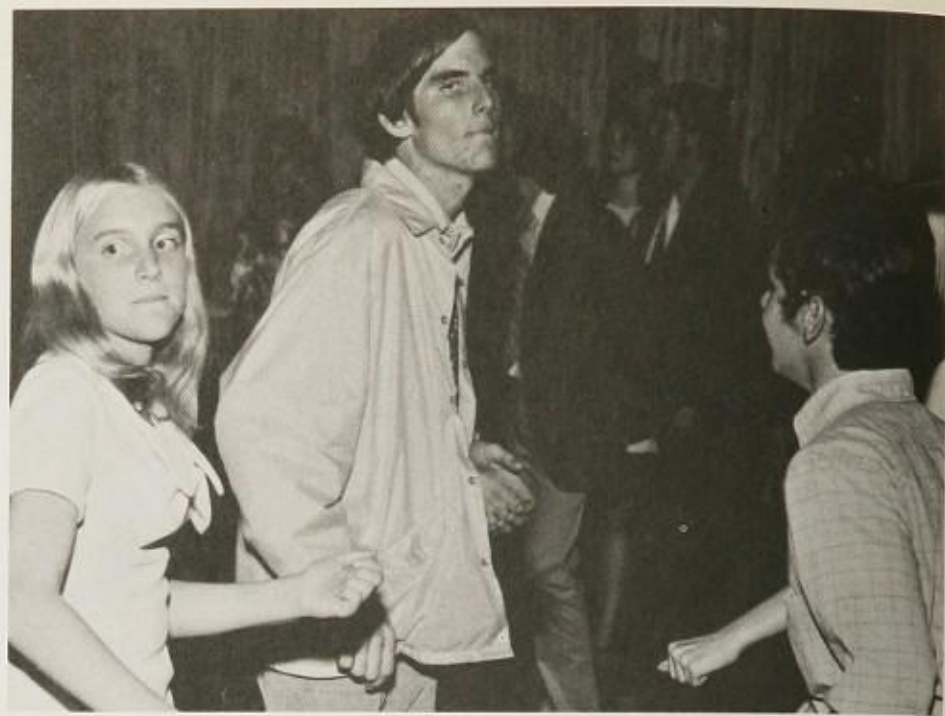

Play

Middletown's internationally chartered dramatic organization, Thespian Troupe 2220, presented their first annual student produced and directed production in early February. Included in the evening of one-acts were Sorry, Wrong Number, directed by Richard Lawton, and This Property is Condemned, directed by Robert Hitt. Kathy Smith and Rockie Rorie won acclaim in leading roles. Ron Buck and Jean Day also presented readings of their original poetry. The very successful show was produced by Barbara Carrellas and strove to set new standards of professionalism in the school.

Homecoming

A clear, warm Indian Summer afternoon on October 23, 1971 was the setting for Middletown's Annual Homecoming game. The Islanders defeated North Providence 20-6 and scored another victory to their season's score.

The half-time events commenced with Middletown's band salute to bridging the generation gap. Paul Langford, Senior Class president, presented bouquets to Homecoming Queen, Bernie Thibeault, and her attendants: Mary Ann Poulin, and Pat Faria. The other members of the court including Karen Lorden (11th), Suzanne Denault (10th), and Cheryl Lorden (9th). Also, the seniors were presented with the "spirit jug" for having the most school spirit during spirit week.

That night, the Homecoming dance was held in the MHS cafetorium featuring "Thaddius."

Letter to Yearbook Staff

I would like to thank all the people who worked on the yearbook above and beyond the call of duty. My special thanks go to Charlie Rose and Debbie Marks for their outstanding job in collecting money to pay for our yearbook not to mention thousand little things they did to get the yearbook done. I would also like to thank Karen Wimbiscus and Dory Welenc for their excellent typing job. Last but not least my thanks to my photography staff Chris Nunes for the theme pictures, Ron Buck and Carl Patch for the numerous senior and underclassmen candid.

Good Luck,

Donna
